

PROCLAMATION

AccessAbility Week

May 31 to June 6, 2026

WHEREAS: National AccessAbility Week provides a platform for Canadians to advance accessibility and inclusion, celebrate accomplishments, and work together toward barrier-free communities and workplaces; and,

WHEREAS: Challenges in accessing information, facilities, employment, transportation, and communication supports can continue to affect the ability of people with disabilities to engage fully and equitably in community life; and,

WHEREAS: Creating accessible and inclusive environments ensures that everyone has equitable opportunities to participate, contribute, and thrive in civic, social, and economic life; and,

WHEREAS: The 2026 theme, “Building a Strong, Accessible Canada,” reinforces the role of collaboration in creating accessible communities through thoughtful policies, inclusive practices, and welcoming environments.

NOW THEREFORE: I, Mayor Jones, of the District of North Saanich DO HEREBY PROCLAIM May 31 to June 6, 2026, as “AccessAbility Week” in North Saanich.

Dated this 31st day of May, 2026.
