

DISTRICT OF NORTH SAANICH SUBDIVISION PROCESS

While each subdivision application is unique, the following information will assist in the preparation of an application:

The proposed subdivision must conform to the District of North Saanich Subdivision and Zoning Bylaws. If there is a need for a septic system, the septic system report must be included with the application.

Applicant to supply in person the following:

- Application Form
- If a company is the owner – a copy of an, Authorized Signing Officer for the company owner, is required
- Owner's Authorization (if the owner is not the applicant)
- Certificate of Title
- Copies of all Title Documents (except mortgages)
- BCLS Site Plan (5 copies)
- Septic field report (if the property is not in a sewer area)
- Completed Application form
- Application Fee ($1,000 + $100 per new lot)

Once an application has been accepted the Approving Officer has 60 days to issue a Preliminary Layout Acceptance (PLA) letter which will set out the conditions for final subdivision. These conditions must be met before a subdivision will be approved by the Approving Officer.

Conditions may include, but are not limited to the following*:

- Road dedication (often shown on the submission)
- Development Permit Area requirements
- Park dedication
- Storm Water Management
- Servicing upgrades
- Engineering design
- Site profile
- Technical reports/studies for Environment, Archeological, Slope Stability, Traffic Analysis

Please note this is not an exhaustive list.

Once a PLA is issued, the applicant has 6 months to complete the requirements. If requested prior to the expiration of the PLA, an extension of up to nine months may be considered.

Once all the conditions of approval are complete the applicant must supply the following*:

- A current title search (no more than 5 days old)
- The certification of the legal plan registered
- Any documents to be registered with the plans
- Any documents registered since application
- A letter from a lawyer stating their undertaking to register the documents
- Confirmation that all taxes and fees owed to the District are paid
- Pay the final subdivision fee ($500 + $100 per new lot)
- Provide documentation that the plans and legal documents are filed with LTSA

Please note this is not an exhaustive list.

Note there are no refunds for applications which are withdrawn, cancelled or expired.
